Vienna Stamp Exhibition. New printings of the 1850 issue with value indicator replaced by "1881" (ANK N1). Block of four imperf plus two singles (one Imm, one without gum)

Stamp Exhibition in Vienna, 1881.

On the occasion of the first public philatelic exhibition held in Vienna in 1881 a series of 16 souvenir stamps was issued. The Imperial State Printing Works prepared plates of the 1850 issue (type I), removing the value indicator and substituting the date "1881".

The stamps were printed in blue on sixteen differently coloured papers and they are found both perforate 11½ and imperforate. The exhibition was master-minded by Sigmund Friedl, the Vienna stamp dealer, and was held between the 13th and 20th of November 1881 in the halls of the Horticultural Society of Vienna. There were over 8,000 visitors.
