EIN NACHDRUCK ZUM JUBILÄUM

Bei unseren Beratungen und bei den vielen Gesprächen, wie sie im Zuge einer so großen Veranstaltung üblich sind, hatten wir alle das Gefühl, es fehlte noch irgend etwas. Die Belegstücke zu den Ausstellungen, die Sonderstempel, irgendwie erschien es uns zu wenig. Wir dachten, zu einem 50-Jahre-Jubiläum, zu einer erstmals aus diesem Anlasse von unserem Verein veranstalteten ÖVEBRIA gehöre eben noch etwas besonderes.

Nun, dank dem besonderen Entgegenkommen der Generalpostdirektion können wir damit aufwarten, mit einem Nachdruck, wie dem WIPA-Gedenkblatt und zuletzt dem Nachdruck des Entwurfes eines drei Kreuzer Postwertzeichens, inzwischen unter dem Namen „Radnitzky Block“ zu einer, von den Initiatoren sicherlich gar nicht beabsichtigten Rarität geworden.

Es wird ein Gedenkblatt nach einem im Jahre 1925 angekauften Entwurf, der aber dann, bedingt durch die Situation nicht zur Ausführung gelangte, erscheinen, (siehe nebenstehende Seite) 1925, die Situation auf dem Sektor der Währung, die damalige Sanierung, die Umstellung von der Kronen- auf die Schillingwährung, dabei auch eine Umstellung im Kunstdenken und in den Schöpfungen der Künstler, in den Motiven, die sich ja bis dahin in den Köpfen der Monarchen und in heraldischen Symbolen erschöpften, dies alles schuf eine Situation, die wir uns heute, 50 Jahre später nur schwer vorstellen können.

Zu dieser Zeit, als die Post wahrlich genug Probleme hatte, legte ein Künstler namens Karl Offner zwei Entwürfe vor, einer, den wir im Gedenkblatt sehen werden, zeigte eine Zeichnung der bekannten Silhouette Wiens, meines Wissens nach erstmalig, solche Motive mit der Ansicht Wiens erschienen ja im Laufe der Jahre öfter, aber dieser Entwurf zeigte sie erstmals.

Die Entwürfe für Briefmarken, als man sich mit der Schaffung solcher Wertzeichen befafte, waren ja anfangs nur als gedruckte Stempel gedacht und ausgeführt, bar jeder künstlerischen Idee, wie es in der „Kleinen Kunstgeschichte der österreichischen Briefmarke“ auch freimütig zugegeben wird. Bei dieser Auffassung verblieben die Künstler auch viele Jahre lang und erst Kolo Moser, der geniale Maler, schuf in seiner einmaligen Serie der Landschaften von Bosnien Herzegovina den Durchbruch vom bloßen Dekor zum Bild. Ihm folgten Cossmann, Renner, vor allem aber Jung und der begnadete Künstler Wilhelm Dachauer.

Im Kreise dieser Künstler, die in der Secession Olbrichs zu neuen Wegen und Auffassungen schritten, war sicher auch der Künstler, dessen Entwurf nun 50 Jahre später in einem Gedenkblatt seine Auferstehung feiern wird. Sein Entwurf zeigt, fürwahr, daß er zu jenen Künstlern gehörte, die neue Wege gingen und bis zu den heutigen Markenschöpfungen das Image der österreichischen Marken geprägt haben.
